LOCAL MATTERS.

CHURCH NOTES.—At the Pine-Street Bap-tist church the wind-storm that passed over the city about 12 o'clock struck this church in the midst of the morning sermon, and so much alarmed the congregation that they commenced going out, and the pastor was obliged to stop and dismiss them all. No damage, however, was done to the house, and the breaking up of the congregation was needless. The pastor had to content himself with not delivering the last part of his sermon.

At the Second Baptist church Rev. Dr. McIntosh, secretary of the Home-Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, preached in the morning a sermon which the people very much enjoyed. At the Grace-Street Baptist church durng the morning service the storm struck of the audience was diverted by the storm, and the pastor stopped his sermon and led the congregation in singing "Jesus, Refuge of My Soul." Only one or two went out of the church till the service was over. The protracted meeting now in progress for four weeks has resulted in some forty-and elegant. At Leigh-Street Baptist church Rev. Dr. McIntosh preached at night a very effective sermon. At the Broad-Street Methodist church on Sunday Rev. Preston Nash, in the absence of the pastor, who was out of the city, preached morning and night. At the Manchester Methodist church sixteen persons were received during the week on profession. Up to the present time there have been seventy conversions, and ten adult baptisms.

At Oregon church two persons were received on profession. There was also one adult baptism. At this church there have been about twenty converts. At Nicholson-Street church there were eight conversions during the week. Three persons were received on Sunday, and the meetings will be continued.

A NEW CHURCH DEDICATED .- On Sunday Rev. A. E. Dickinson, D. D., of this city, dedicated the new Baptist church at Waverly station, on the Norfolk and Petersburg railroad. He closed his sermon with an appeal for money to pay what was yet due on the house, and raised three hundred and fifty dollars in each and subscriptions. In the afternoon of the same day a Baptist church was constituted, to be known as the 'Waverly Baptist church," and Rev. J. W. Perry, formerly of South Carolina, was Messrs. Jeter and Winfree.
